22 of 53.

[16th November, 1927.]

Short title.

1. This Law may be cited as the Hours of Employment Law.

Power to the Governor
in Council
to make orders limiting hours of work.
2 of 22/53.

2. (1) The Governor in Council may, if he thinks fit and after considering any recommendations of the Labour Advisory Board in this respect, make an Order fixing the hours of work whether daily, weekly or monthly, of persons employed in any occupation or business, either generally or in any specified area to which this Law shall be declared by such Order to be applied.

(2) Any person who acts in contravention or fails to comply with the provisions of any Order made under subsection (1) shall be liable to imprisonment not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(3) For the purposes of this section "Labour Advisory Board" means the Board established by the Governor to advise on any labour matters and consisting of members representing employers and employees respectively under the chairmanship of the Commissioner of Labour.

Hours fixed
by Order
may be extended.
3 of 22/53.

3. An Order under this Law may make provision for the hours of employment fixed by such Order being extended on such occasions and for such purposes and to such extent only as may be specified in such Order.
